Feature Mare of the Week

BURNING SANDS

Paying $300,000, $400,000 or even $500,000 or more for young attractive well bred Group winning mares off the track is certainly no guarantee that they will turn you a profit and/or produce physically superior foals. If you were presented with the opportunity to buy a youngish attractive well bred Group winning mare in foal to a Champion Sire for less than these amounts and this mare has consistently been able to turn a profit, has been producing physically superior foals and is extremely fertile, wouldn't this seem like a much sounder and more financially viable purchase? A mare like this I would consider a "blue chip" asset.

BURNING SANDS was a very good two-year-old. She won one of the major Golden Slipper lead ups, the Group 3 STC Sweet Embrace (3rd race start), and then was not beaten too far in the Group 1 STC Golden Slipper behind DANCE HERO, CHARGE FORWARD and ALINGHI.

BURNING SANDS is by promising broodmare sire MARJU, a son of leading broodmare sire LAST TYCOON. Her dam is a 1/2 sister to dual Group 2 winner & Group 1 placed SKOOZI (PLEASE), Stakes Placed TERRAIN, and OPERA SINGER, dam of 2008 Stakes Winner KIRI. This is the family of Champion NZ 2yo & 3yo VINAKA.

If you want to make money from your breeding enterprise, the most important assets to retain are those mares that can consistently make you money. BURNING SANDS has certainly been able to do that in bundles to date. Her first foal sold for $625,000 at Easter, the 2nd highest priced RED RANSOM yearling of 2008. This colt is now with leading trainer David Hayes. Her FLYING SPUR colt sold at Easter this year for $160,000 to trainer John Symons (BEL ESPRIT, MACEDON LADY, etc), and her 2008 GENERAL NEDIYM colt is another high class individual.

BURNING SANDS sells in-foal to Champion Sire RED RANSOM (Last service date - 26 Oct 08). She is for genuine sale with a very realistic asking price of $275,000 plus GST. The mare is presently located in close proximity to the Hunter Valley.
